
SIENA HOTEL-CASINO CLOSES IN RENO

The Siena hotel-casino abruptly closed down this Thursday, having filed for bankruptcy back in July. All the employees were consequently let go and given letters thanking them both for their service and advice on how to best hunt for new jobs. Management is attempting to find sources of financing, and remains the only hope of the Siena reopening. Reno Mayor Bob Cashell declared this a sad day for both Siena and its employees, adding he wishes the property management the best of luck in procuring new sources of revenue.
