

TITAN PROMOTES GOLDSMITH TO PRESIDENT; ABOLT TO EXECUTIVE V.P.

TITAN

titan360.com Scott Goldsmith, who served as general counsel and executive vice president of Titan, has been promoted to president of the company, according to a press release issued Wednesday.

Titan is based in New York and is the largest transit advertising company in the U.S. In his new role, Goldsmith will be responsible for securing new advertising opportunities for its clients as well as driving new sales opportunities across North America.

Titan also expanded the duties of another senior executive. Craig Abolt becomes Titan's executive vice president, chief financial officer and chief administrative officer. He will be responsible for all financial and administrative functions of the company.

<https://blog.granted.com/>