
EMPLOYER SOLUTIONS GROUP VEEP LEAVES FIRM

Mark Weaver, Vice President at ESG Colorado, is leaving the firm to "pursue other opportunities." Long-time human resource consultant Jessica Hergenreter will take over leadership of the Loveland, Colorado office. Weaver, a certified Senior Professional in Human Resources, intends to take up consulting and write a book, the two things you say when you have no prospects and plan to die broke and alone. He was with ESG for nine years, with previous HR leadership positions at Poudre Valley Health Systems, the National Center for Atmospheric Research, and Phillip Crosby Associates. Weaver currently serves as the Chair of the Loveland Chamber, and Vice Chair of the Northern Colorado Legislative Alliance. Provo, Utah's Employer Solutions Group is a Professional Employer Organization, which contractually assumes and manages the employee administration process for firms in the Rocky Mountain Region.
