
JOB SERVICE NORTH DAKOTA TAPS PAVLICEK AS HR MANAGER

Job Service North Dakota has hired Lorrie Pavlicek as its human resources manager, overseeing 17 JSND offices statewide. Pavlicek comes from the North Dakota Department of Transportation, where she spent 15 years in training and human resources positions. She is certified as a senior professional in human resources. Job Service North Dakota is a department of the North Dakota State Cabinet, under current Governor John Hoeven. It is responsible for overseeing the state's job market, finding employment for its citizens, and assisting businesses in acquiring qualified workers.
