

PINNACLE HIRES REYNOLDS FOR HR VEEP

PINN▲CLE

Seattle, Washington-based international real estate management firm Pinnacle has hired Jean Reynolds as its new vice president of human resources. Reynolds joins from The Staubach Company, where she was vice president of human resources. She has 20 years of HR experience with national real estate services firms. At Staubach, Reynolds handled workforce planning, recruiting, performance management, employee relations, leadership development, employee training, health & welfare benefits strategy & administration, and compensation. Prior to Staubach, Reynolds was director of human resources for AMRESO. She holds a master's degree in Human Relations from Amberton University, and is a Senior Professional of Human Resources. Seattle, Washington's Pinnacle, an American Management Services Company, is a leader in third-party fee management, managing a portfolio of apartment, office and industrial assets valued at more than $18 billion, with over 5,000 employees in 42 states.

<https://blog.granted.com/>