

---

SWAGELOK TAPS TURNER AS HR DIRECTOR

Sally Turner has joined the Swagelok Company as director, human resource services. She will be responsible for directing activities in the company's benefits, human resources information systems, corporate training and development, staffing, and organizational development groups. Turner joins from the Goldberg Companies, where she was director of human resources. Headquartered in Solon, Ohio, the Swagelok Company is a developer and provider of fluid system solutions, including products, assemblies, and services for the research, instrumentation, pharmaceutical, oil and gas, power, petrochemical, alternative fuels, and semiconductor industries. Its manufacturing, research, technical support, and distribution facilities support a global network of more than 200 authorized sales and service centers in 57 countries.

<https://blog.granted.com/>