
KEVIN HORIGAN NAMED PRESIDENT OF GLOBAL HR TECHNOLOGY AT KENEXA

Global HR giant Kenexa announced that Kevin Horigan has joined the company as President of Global HR Technology. Horigan, who most recently served as senior vice president at SAP, has a strong background in sales, marketing, finance, professional services, and software development. At Kenexa, he will be responsible for the overall strategy and operational execution of the HR Technology division. Kenexa began operating in 1987, providing recruitment services to a variety of industries. Since 1997 the company has been a provider of human resources technology, providing human capital management with integrated software. Today, Kenexa has over 30 offices around the world.

<https://blog.granted.com/>