
NEW VICE PRESIDENT OF HR FOR IGT

Las Vegas -- International Game Technology announced Monday that Aimee Hoyt would become its new Vice President of Human Resources. "We are delighted to welcome Aimee to the IGT team," said IGT President and CEO Patti Hart. "She brings with her deep professional knowledge and experience that will help IGT to further our Human Resources programs globally and build upon our competitive advantage in the marketplace." Before moving to IGT, Hoyt worked for computer giant Hewlett-Packard, where she led HR for HP's Software and Solutions division. Hoyt holds a Master of Science in Human Resources Development from the Rochester Institute of Technology.

<https://blog.granted.com/>