SECURIAN PROMOTES PINKETT TO V.P. OF HUMAN RESOURCES

SECURIA

Kathleen L. Pinkett has been named vice president of human resources and corporate services at Securian Financial Group Inc. effective Oct. 1. She will report directly to Chairman and CEO Robert L. Senkler. Pinkett succeeds Keith M. Campbell, senior vice president of human resources and corporate services, who will retire Oct. 1 after 38 years with Securian. Under Campbell's tenure, Securian significantly expanded its St. Paul headquarters campus and earned many local and national employer awards. Pinkett joined Securian in 1981 as an assistant analyst in management services. She joined the H.R. department as director of human resources planning in 1995. Securian Financial Group and its affiliates have provided financial services for individuals and businesses since 1880.
