NEW FULL-SERVICE HR CONSULTANCY FORMED

A newly-formed human resources consultancy was announced Wednesday. Dubbed Anchor Planning Group, the company will focus on helping organizations systematically improve their employees productivity, while reducing cost, through creative, innovative approaches to HR. According to a press release, Anchor Planning Group will provide a full range of HR services, including recruitment/staffing, employee/labor relations, insurance, financial education, compensation and performance management, and benefits administration. The firm's expertise and background derives from a wide variety of industries, including hospitality, manufacturing and retail, as well as non-profit and government operations. Jeffrey Wade, co-founder and president, said "all of the firm's senior consultants have former operational experience and profit and loss responsibilities...Anchor provides solutions that create a culture that connects people to their jobs and companies with an emphasis on return on investment." Anchor Planning Group is located in suburban Washington D.C. Additional information may be found at the company's Web site at www.anchorplanninggroup.com.
