
NOW SOLUTIONS TAPS EMPATH TECHNOLOGY TO AID HUMAN RESOURCES AND PAYROLL

NOW Solutions, Inc. in Fort Worth, Texas, has sent out a press release detailing its new deal with Howe Sound Pulp and Paper, who recently licensed emPath technology to aid its Human Resources and Payroll department. emPath is a web-based HRMS/payroll solution that utilizes Microsoft.NET technology to offer functional efficiency and incredible performance gains. Rob Sterpin, the VP of Sales for NOW, said, "We are very excited to have Howe Sound Pulp and Paper as a NOW Solutions client. emPath delivers a sophisticated HR/Payroll solution to organizations such as Howe Sound Pulp and Paper that have very complex needs." emPath allows companies to integrate human resources and payroll functionality and offers comprehensive administrative and workflow capabilities. "emPath gives us the ability to access information and reports in a user friendly, versatile single solution. As a result, we'll be able to have optimal functionality in a cost effective scalable solution," said Systems Superintendent of Howe Sound Pulp and Paper, Marc Turenne.
