ULTIMATE SOFTWARE HOSTS FREE HR CONFERENCE IN PA

Ultimate Software will be hosting a free, interactive human resources workshop on Monday, November 8, 2010 at The Union League in Philadelphia. The company is a leading provider of unified human capital management SaaS solutions for global businesses. The HR Certification Institute has approved the workshop for 3.75 hours (0.75 strategic) of credit, while the American Payroll Association has also given their seal of approval to 5.5 hours of credit. A snippet taken from Ultimate Software's website, highlighting their industry status: "Our exclusive focus on HRMS/ payroll has resulted in consistent recognition by leading industry experts and technology analysts over the past few years."
