
STALNAKER PROMOTED TO DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN RESOURCES

William R. Sharpe Hospital's in Weston, West Virginia's chief executive has been promoted to deputy commissioner of the state Department of Health and Human Resources. Stalnaker is a certified public accountant with over 10 years of executive-level experience working in health-care. He had previously been employed by United Health System, Davis Health System, as well as Broaddus Hospital. As deputy commissioner, Stalnaker will head operations for the department's Bureau for Behavioral Health and Health Facilities.

<https://blog.granted.com/>