

---

HR PLUS BRINGS TATE IN TO SERVE AS PRESIDENT

HR Plus, a service that helps HR executives execute comprehensive employment and background screenings, has appointed Bill J. Tate as president. Tate will oversee all operations throughout the organization. Bill Whitmore, president of AlliedBarton Security Services, parent-company to HR Plus, said, “Bill is a well-respected, visionary leader who is bringing an extensive amount of experience to HR Plus.” Tate’s resume boasts over 30 years experience in sales and executive management. Tate served as president of Aperture Consulting Group, where he saw shareholder value grow during his tenure. HR Plus offers comprehensive employment and background screening solutions, including drug testing and fingerprinting, coupled with a secure and easy-to-navigate web interface, according to the press release.

<https://blog.granted.com/>