
PAYCHEX INC. APPOINTS TWO NEW VPS

Paychex, Inc, a payroll and human resource service company serving the U.S. and Germany, has appointed two new executives: Andrew B. Childs has been appointed the vice president of marketing, while Laurie L. Zaucha has been appointed vice president of human resources and organizational development. Zaucha succeeds Will Kuchta, who will retire this year. "I look forward to the leadership skills of these experienced executives helping to take Paychex to the next level of success," said CEO Martin Mucci. "I have said since becoming CEO last fall that we would be putting more focus on marketing, and [Childs] experience and leadership will help us drive results in this area." Mucci went on to express what he hopes is a bright future for the company. "Paychex has a strong, respected brand. With [Childs'] guidance, we will further position ourselves as the payroll and HR outsourcing expert for small and medium-sized businesses across America."

<https://blog.granted.com/>