

---

STEFANIE KINCAID-TUCKER BECOMES CERTIFIED BY HR CERTIFICATION INSTITUTE

The HR Certification Institute has awarded Stefanie Kincaid-Tucker, an HR Manager for Conditioned Air Corporation, with a certification as a Professional in Human Resources. According to Mary Power, the Executive Director of the HR Certification Institute, "Certification as a human resource professional clearly demonstrates a commitment to personal excellence and to the human resource profession." In order to become certified, an applicant has to pass a comprehensive exam, as well as demonstrating a solid background in the human resources profession. The HR Certification Institute is affiliated with the Society for Human Resource Management, the largest human resources society in the world. The institute's mission is to establish professional standards for HR professionals and to recognize those that meet them.

<https://blog.granted.com/>