
TRIUMPH INC. APPOINTS ELISABETH BARRET VP OF HUMAN RESOURCES

Triumph Group Inc., the multifaceted aircraft company, has appointed Elisabeth H. Barrett as its new vice president of Human Resources. CEO of Triumph, Richard C. III, had this to say about Barrett's appointment, "I am pleased to announce this well-deserved promotion of Betsy Barrett. She has been instrumental in implementing key human resources policies and initiatives throughout our company and has clearly demonstrated her ability to assume this role. I am happy to have her part of Triumph's management team and am confident that she will continue to be a key contributor to our company's success." Prior to being appointed VP of Human Resources, Barrett had served as the company's Director of Human Resources. Before working at Triumph, she served as Vice President of Administrative Services at Alco Standard Corp.

<https://blog.granted.com/>