— JW Marriot's Starr Pass resort in Tuscon, Arizona has promoted Carla Rine to Director of Human Resources. Prior to her becoming director, Rine held several positions with JW Marriott Resorts. She worked her way up through the ranks, beginning as a Front Desk Supervisor while still in college. Other positions she held were Residence Inn General Manager, Special Project Manager, and Performance Development Manager. "I am so happy to be able to work the excellent team at Starr Pass," Rine said. "I like to see people living the life that they really want to live, successfully and happily balancing work and home life. I'm able to help them achieve that success with this new position in Human Resources."
