
CAROLINE STEVENS NAMED NEW HR VICE PRESIDENT OF MINOR HOTEL GROUP

HUMAN RESOURCES JOURNAL

A new Human Resources Vice President has been hired for Minor Hotel Group Limited. Minor Hotel Group is one of the leading hotel operators and developers in Asia. It is a subsidiary of Minor International PCL, and is based in Bangkok, Thailand. Stevens was formerly the HR Vice President, Middle East and Africa with Hilton Worldwide. Before she worked at Hilton, she worked at Jumeirah and Hyatt International in regional and property assignments. Stevens graduated from Edith Cowan University, Perth Western, Australia, with a double major business degree in industrial relations and personnel. She has a good understanding of operations and experience in managing issues related to people, and is expected to help the company in their growth globally. The Chief Operating Officer of Minor Hotel Group, Dillip Rajakarier, says: "The success of a company is only as great as its people and with Caroline at our HR helm we can certainly be assured of great things to come. Caroline joining us heralds the next step in our global hotel expansion and we are delighted to have such a talented HR specialist on-board."
