

3,000+ POST OFFICES COULD BE SHUT DOWN

USPS announced on Tuesday that after studying customer demand, it may close as many as 3,700 post offices around the country. In place of these traditional mail centers, the postal service is looking to third parties like super markets and office supply stores to cater to the mailing needs of customers by offering the same services and products. Read the full article here: Thousands of Post Offices to Close

<https://blog.granted.com/>