
HEALTHCARE COSTS TO INCREASE IN 2012

This year, healthcare costs will continue to rise, prompting employers to make changes to their current healthcare plans. Companies plan to make workers pay higher premiums, raise the deductible amount (both in- and out-of-network) and/or increase out-of-pocket payments. Employers will also make efforts to keep their employees health-conscious so as to reduce the likelihood of using medical services.

Read the original article here: Cost Increases, Changes Coming To Health Plans

<https://blog.granted.com/>