

M-FILES HR SOLUTION

An announcement from M-Files Incorporation will be made during the showcase in Fort Worth, Texas from October 30th until November 2nd.

The conference in Fort Worth is the biggest conference for human resources. During the conference, there will be lessons, educational speakers, and sessions that will help companies work on their strategies and techniques.

The president of M-Files Incorporation, Greg Milliken, has said, "Monitoring the status of all company employees and candidates is document-centric and process-intensive. With M-Files, HR professionals can streamline the paperwork and work flow associated with essentially any HR-related process." When describing the solutions that the company has made, Milliken has also said, "Protecting sensitive employee information is paramount, and M-Files offers the best permission management in the industry, bar none. Confidentiality and file access can be defined around different roles and for different purposes, and driven directly by user-definable meta-data in a highly-configurable and automated fashion. Documents can be restricted to a certain group of managers based on whether they include confidential personal information such as a social security number, or they can be published to a larger audience if reviewed and approved, or made available only to members of a certain project team if the document is tagged with the associated project."

M-Files has plans to help businesses of all sizes with their human relations department.
