

HIRING PROSPECTS BRIGHTEN FOR YOUNG WORKERS

Labor Department announced that 650,000 young people aged 16 to 24 have been hired during the last quarter. This has been the biggest spike since the beginning of the crisis. Young people were severely affected by recession and the jobless rate for college graduates age below 25 was at its all-time highest level at 2010.

Read the full article here:

Hiring Picture Brightens for Young Workers

<https://blog.granted.com/>