

PRESIDENT OBAMA SEEKS TO BRING JOBS BACK TO U.S., STIMULATE MANUFACTURING

Washington: Saying that 'no challenge is more urgent' than keeping the American dream alive, President Barack Obama virtually launched his re-election campaign hitting out at "outsourcing" with a call to bring "manufacturing jobs back" to America. Declaring that "the state of our nation is getting stronger", Obama in his third State of the Union address to a joint sitting of Congress Tuesday.
