

ECONOMISTS GROUP TO SEND NEW JOBS PETITION TO OBAMA

From the Dollars & Sense Blog: The group Economists for Full Employment is circulating an online petition to be sent to Obama and Congress. It calls on legislators to "ensure that the jobs created are accessible to women, minorities and the poor and that job creation initiatives include social services, alongside infrastructure development and "green jobs." You can read, and if you wish sign, the full petition here. Economists for Full Employment describes itself as "a group of economists working towards building a global informal network of academics, policy advisors, institutions, advocates and members of government, committed to the realization of the right to a job.
