

CANADA'S TOP EMPLOYER SUMMIT COMING UP IN APRIL

The Top Employer Summit is an annual conference for Canada's Top 100 Employers. In its 6th year, the event will assemble writers and organizers who will compete in the national competition, as well as another 18 popular regional and special-interest competitions managed by the Summit along with 22 newspaper and magazine partners. Every year, the Top Employer Summit features world-class speakers, journalists, and case studies from specific employers. Each of these exhibitions is selected by the editors of Canada's Top 100 Employers. One can expect to have all of their questions answered regarding the competition in a two-day, non commercial format. Speakers in past years have included: Robert F. Kennedy Jr., Al Gore, and Muhammad Yunus. The conference is Canada's largest annual gathering of senior-level HR professionals. It will run from April 28-29, 2009.
