
IOWA HOSPITAL CUTS JOBS, KEEPS WORKERS

A Mason City, Iowa hospital is cutting jobs, but hopes to keep all the workers. Mercy Medical Center-North Iowa will eliminate 59 jobs as it restructures its home health care service and hospice program. It is also shuttering a clinic in Rockwell. The majority of the jobs to be eliminated are in hospice and home care. The hospital says employees in good standing will be offered new positions.

<https://blog.granted.com/>