
RHODE ISLAND STRIP CLUB TO HOLD JOB FAIR

Providence, Rhode Island strip club Foxy Lady is hosting a job fair this Saturday, looking for 25 new employees. The establishment seeks managers, dancers, DJs, bartenders and bouncers. More than 10% of job seekers in Rhode Island cannot find work, the highest level in 30 years and one of the worst in the nation. Desperation is leading some Rhode Islanders to seek jobs in the adult entertainment industry. The club is well-known for its "showgirls" and its "Legs and Eggs" Friday brunch. No, really.
