
USPS TO OFFER RETIREMENT TO 150,000 WORKERS; CLOSE OFFICES, CUT JOBS,

The US Postal Service announced today it will close offices, cut jobs and offer early retirement to workers to save more than $100 million annually. The agency is closing six of 80 district offices, and 15% of district-level workers will lose their jobs. About 150,000 workers across the US will be offered early retirement.
