
Q-EDGE CREATES 500 TEXAS JOBS

Plainfield, Indiana's Q-Edge is moving into the Alliance Global Logistics Hub in Fort Worth, Texas. The electronics assembly company will lease 365,440 square feet for its assembly and distribution operation. The firm will get an incentive package from the Fort Worth City Council. The Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce, the City of Fort Worth, and the Indiana Governor's office worked closely with Q-Edge to bring the firm to Fort Worth. Workforce Solutions will host a job fair to recruit skilled computer assembly and distribution workers for the company.

<https://blog.granted.com/>