
BALTIMORE SUN CUTS 60 JOBS

The Baltimore Sun has laid off another 60 people, including veteran editors and columnists. The paper cut over 100 jobs in 2008. Both management and union positions were targeted. Founded in 1837, The Baltimore Sun is Maryland's largest general circulation daily newspaper. Its circulation as of 2007 was 232,360 for the daily edition and 372,970 on Sundays.

<https://blog.granted.com/>