
CONSOL ENERGY WILL ELIMINATE 54 JOBS

CONSOL Energy will eliminate 54 jobs, and shut down two operations in the West Virginia's southern coalfields in July. The Canonsburg, Pennsylvania-based company says 47 mine jobs will be cut; and seven will be laid off the at the Miller Creek Administration Group in Williamson. Founded in 1864, Cumberland, Maryland's CONSOL Energy is the largest underground coal producer in the United States and has operations in West Virginia, Virginia, Kentucky, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Utah.

<https://blog.granted.com/>