
EASTERN WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY TO CUT 110 EMPLOYEES

Eastern Washington University may cut 110 jobs, as it faces $26 million in budget reductions. Almost half of the jobs are already vacant. The school plans to increase class size, and may raise tuition. Founded in 1882, Eastern Washington University is a public comprehensive state university. The main campus is located in Cheney, Washington and has a branch campus in Spokane. As of Fall 2008, it had an enrollment of 13,895.

<https://blog.granted.com/>