
AMEREX EXTINGUISHES 20 JOBS

Amerex has cut 20 jobs this week. The Trussville, Alabama-based firm manufactures fire extinguishers. Twenty of the firm's 90 Trussville employees were voluntarily furloughed, without a set return date. Those affected will keep their health insurance while furloughed. A previously furloughed group is expected to return in August. The firm employs 550 nationally.

<https://blog.granted.com/>