
TRELLEBORG TO CUT 91 NEW HAMPSHIRE JOBS

Trelleborg Sealing Solutions is shutting down its aerospace parts plant in Somersworth, New Hampshire, laying off 91 workers. The plant, which opened in 1961, will be shut down over the next nine months. The first layoffs will come in September. The plant opened in 1961. The first layoffs will come in September. The jobs are being sent to Massachusetts, Mexico and Italy. Trelleborg Sealing Solutions is a supplier of products and solutions for industrial sealing and bearing systems. It is a subsidiary of Sweden's Trelleborg Group.

<https://blog.granted.com/>