

NACA TO CREATE 1,000 NORTH CAROLINA JOBS

Housing assistance non-profit the Neighborhood Assistance Corporation of America will invest $4.5 million to expand its presence in Charlotte, North Carolina, creating 1,000 new positions over the next five years. NACA is getting $1 million in incentives. The firm will hold a job fair this Friday to fill 500 of those positions. It currently employs 100 in Charlotte. Wages will average $36,000. Boston, Massachusetts' Neighborhood Assistance Corporation of America is a non-profit community advocacy and home ownership organization. NACA's goal is to build strong, healthy neighborhoods in urban and rural areas nationwide through affordable home ownership.

<https://blog.granted.com/>