

EVITE CUTS 24% OF STAFF

Oakland, California-based Internet company Evite has laid off nine of its 38 employees. Two executives were laid off: general manager Rosanna McCollough and marketing veep Lariayn Payne. No further details have been released, concerning the other seven employees affected. Launched in 1998, Evite is a social-planning website for creating, sending, and managing online invitations. The website is a free, advertisement-supported service. It is owned by conglomerate IAC/InterActiveCorp.

<https://blog.granted.com/>