
JPMORGAN CHASE HIRING IN LOUSIANA

JPMorgan Chase will hire 250 workers for the company's mortgage records center in Monroe, Louisiana. The new hiring will be complete in early August. JPMorgan is northeastern Louisiana's second-largest private employer. The firm will employ 2,100 people in Ouachita Parish. New York City's JPMorgan Chase is one of the oldest financial services firms in the world. It is a leader in financial services with assets of $2.3 trillion, and the largest market capitalization and deposit base of any US banking institution.
