
CDI TO HIRE 50 IN WEST VIRGINIA

CDI IT Solutions will double its workforce in Cross Lanes, West Virginia, hiring 50 people. The firm operates a technology service center in Cross Lanes, an unincorporated census-designated place suburb of Charleston in Kanawha County. As of the 2007 estimate, Cross Lanes' population was 13,119. Philadelphia's CDI IT Solutions, a division of CDI Corp., provides information technology consulting, project outsourcing and staffing. The majority of its clients receive service support from the Cross Lanes center.
