
PROPAK LOGISTICS MAY CREATE 50 ARIZONA JOBS

Propak Logistics has leased a space at the Central Arizona Distribution Center in Casa Grande, potentially creating 50 jobs. The pallet-repair company will install the new facility at the insistence of its client, Wal-Mart Stores. The facility will employ 50, and is expected to open in October. Propak has established four such facilities across the country over the past year. Forst Smith, Arizona's Propak is a leading third party logistics, transportation and freight management service.
