
QWEST ADDING 100 JOBS IN IOWA

Qwest Communications announced that it was adding one hundred new jobs to its call center in Sioux City, Iowa. This follows eighty new jobs added by Qwest in April. The new jobs will be in sales and customer service for its residential products and services. Qwest (pronounced "quest") is a telecommunications carrier headquartered in Denver, providing local service in fourteen western states. Services vary based on location but include voice, data and television service among other services.

<https://blog.granted.com/>