

PELLA CUTS 37 JOBS IN IOWA

Pella Corp., a window and door manufacturer, is cutting 37 jobs at its Sioux City plant at the end of this week. This represents about ten percent of its workforce at the factory, which manufactures windows. The company has indicated that steep reductions in new housing starts have made the cuts necessary. Founded in 1925 as Rolscreen Company, Pella operates factories in several states.

<https://blog.granted.com/>