
GRUPO EULEN MOVING REGIONAL HQ TO FLORIDA, ADDING 500 JOBS

Spain's Grupo Eulen is moving its regional headquarters from Mexico City to Miami in the wake of its acquisition of ASM Aviation Services. The move is expected to bring in 500 new Jobs for Miami. Grupo Eulen provides cleaning, maintenance, security and environmental services for major international companies. Globally, it employs over 70,000 people and has revenues in excess of $2.3 billion. ASM Aviation Services services the airline industry with passenger services, ground services and janitorial services. ASM will be re-branded as Eulen America, the company says.
