
REOPENED PLANT IN OHIO TO BRING 200 JOBS

ArvinMeritor has agreed to lease an idle portion of its Detroit plant to Ohio Modular Manufacturing Company for six years. Ohio Modular Manufacturing will reopen the plant, which supplies products for auto manufacturers. In addition to the 109 workers previously laid off by ArvinMeritor, the company expects to add 100 new jobs. In addition, ArvinMeritor will transfer some of its Chrysler contracts to OMMC.

<https://blog.granted.com/>