
AMWAY MOVING JOBS TO COSTA RICA

Amway is cutting 93 jobs in North America and consolidating its finance department. The consolidation will take place at its operations center in Costa Rica, where some new jobs will be created as a result. Most of the job cuts will be at its headquarters in Ada, Michigan. The company is hoping to reduce the number of layoffs that result from job cuts through early retirement and transfers to other positions within the company.

<https://blog.granted.com/>