

EBAY ADDING JOBS IN UTAH

EBay Inc., the Internet auction site that once listed the plane Sarah Palin famously sold as Governor of Alaska, is adding more than 450 jobs at its operation center in Draper, Utah. The company is investing $334 million in a state of the art data center and will receive $30 million from the state in the form of tax incentives. In order to receive the tax credits, EBay will have to earn them by meeting job creation targets. EBay has been operating in Utah for 10 years and currently employs 1000 people in the state.
