

AUTO PLANT IN ARKANSAS TO ADD 250 JOBS

There's good news in Arkansas via our friends from France. French-company Saint Jean Industries will more than double the number of employees at its auto-parts plant in Heber Springs as part of a $14 million expansion. Saint Jean said through a press release the facility, which currently employs 180 workers, will be bolstered through 250 additional jobs. The expansion is a result of several significant orders being placed with the company, according to the release.
