

STARPOINT SOLUTIONS HIRING 70 IN RHODE ISLAND

Staffing firm Starpoint Solutions will hire up to 70 employees in Rhode Island to fill various positions within the next six months. 20 to 60 information and technology consultants and 5 to 10 recruiters will be hired in Starpoint's offices in the Providence area. Starpoint specializes in placing prospective employees in positions in finance, accounting, IT, administrative, Network & Infrastructure technology, executive management and banking. Interested applicants should apply directly to the company through their website under "internal jobs". In December Boston based Starpoint bought out another staffing firm, Corporate Search Group Inc. and expanded their operation into Rhode Island to take advantage of Corporate Search's Providence office location.
