
LIMBACH CO. ADDING 75 JOBS IN MARYLAND EXPANSION

Limbach Company LLC plans to create 75 new jobs over the next three years through the expansion of its regional office and fabrication facility in Maryland. The company will move to a new 40,000 square-foot-space effective March 1, Maryland Gov. Martin O'Malley announced Tuesday. Limbach is a Pittsburgh-based mechanical construction and service firm that currently has 150 employees. The company received a $100,000 loan from Maryland's Department of Business and Economic Development to assist with the move to a new building.
