
VISA SET TO ADD 350 NEW JOBS IN MIAMI

Visa is opening a new customer service center in Miami this summer that will result in 350 new jobs. The news was confirmed in a press release from the Beacon Council, the economic development agency of Miami-Dade County. Visa, which is headquartered in San Francisco, will have nearly 600 employees in Miami following the expansion. Visa is the world's largest retail electronic payments network. It operates in more than 200 countries and had more than $4.4 trillion transacted on its payment products in 2009.
